Dear Dr. L. K. Nanda,

You will be glad to know that on the occasion of World Homoeopathy Day, Central Council for Research in Homoeopathy (CCRH) is organizing a Scientific Convention on 10-11 April 2018 at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi. The Council, established in 1978, is an apex research organization in the field of homoeopathy in the country.

The Convention has been planned to share the advances made in the field. The theme of this convention is "Innovate: Evolve: Progress" portraying salient achievements of 40 years of council. There will be sessions on many interesting topics, which you can see at: <http://whdccrh.in/programme.html>

The delegates of the convention would include homoeopathic researchers, practitioners, students, industrialists as well as representatives of various homoeopathic associations. Many reputed scientists and veterans of Homoeopathy will be the speakers at the event.

Keeping in view your keen interest in the activities of the Council and expertise in your subject, you are requested to kindly be a speaker in our session on 'Applied Clinical Research' on 10th April 2018, scheduled to start at 4:00 pm. Your topic of presentation is 'Clinical Applications of Lesser Known Drugs'.
(More details in the attached program).

In case you have not submitted any (or all) of the following, kindly submit the same by 26th March 2018:

1. Your passport-size photo
2. Small biosketch
3. Abstract of your presentation

Since it is a security-cleared event, we will have to formally register you for the event. Therefore, it is requested that following information may kindly be provided in your reply email for further processing at our end.
